Heritage Mall Corvette Show. April 7-8. Terry Thompson will work on getting something in the paper.
Cars go in Friday night. We need to sign up people to watch the cars.

Tech time: Options asked for other than trickle charging during the winter. The suggestion was to start your vehicle once a month.

50/50 drawing: the drawing amount was $26.00 and Lou Gsell won the drawing.

Attendance drawing: The drawing was skipped this month, it will be $10.00 next month.

Ending comments: Our next meeting will be February 6th, 2018 at 6:29 p.m. the change is due to Valentines day.

There was mention of car show restrictions for the Heritage Mall show.

Goals for the Club: Participation!

A suggestion was made if there is a mystery tour planned to the beach, please do it during summer time.

Ideas discussed about mystery trips and possibly coordinating events with Willamette Valley Corvette Association, Salem.

A suggestion was made about doing a weekend "Tech time." Another suggestion was to bring back summer time ice cream cruises.

Terry Thompson is looking for a place to store some of his vehicles while his new shop is being built. If anyone knows of a location; please contact Terry.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:16 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Sherri Skinner, Secretary
