

BSCC Meeting November 13, 2018

The meeting was called to order by President Al Penna at 6:36 p.m.

New Members/Guests: No new members were present.

New Cars/cars for sale: Terry Thompson's neighbor has a 1984 Corvette for sale.

Birthdays: November birthdays; John Zimmerman, Don Shupert, Roger Marier, Josiah Breen, Robert Todd, Don Cipollone, Henry Carpenter and Carol Hood.

Name Tags: Clyde & Brenda Carr paid $2.00

Treasurers Report: $1,954.34

Old Business: Terry Thompson's open house, about 35 people showed up.

Open house at Al Penna's new place, TBA

Jo Rae was thanked for organizing the club's entry for the Veteran's Day Parade. There was a total of 238 entries into the parade. The parade lasted for about 3 hours. The club won a 3rd place award for Custom/Hot Rod.

Last chance to nominate officers for 2019. Nominations were closed and an email ballot will be sent out to all paid members.

Jo Rae Perkins is in charge of the club's Christmas party and she has a couple of volunteers to assist. A menu was passed around at the meeting to indicate what meat choice you would like. Bring a gift per person for a gift exchange, no dollar limit for the gift, and some type of gift exchange game will be played.

New Business: Ideas were suggested for advertising the club. One suggestion was to hang a Corvette Club banner at Ciddici's on meeting nights. A banner was also suggested to proceed the Corvettes in the Veteran's Day parade also, or hang on the back of a truck.

The car show at Heritage Mall will be in the middle of March to avoid the dates conflicting with the South Albany High School car show.

Events Attended: Al Penna included a long list of shows and events that were attended by club members this year in our agenda for the November meeting. It was a very busy year.

Upcoming Events: The club Christmas party is December 15th at 4 p.m. Dinner is $20.00 per person and the club is picking up the balance.

Tech Time: Rick Skinner shared information that he learned about the C5 brake system while watching a television show.

50/50 Drawing: Lee Cray won $30.00

Attendance Drawing: Scott and Debbie O'Donnell's number was drawn, they were not present.

Closing Comments: Al Penna spoke to the club members about a President Participation Award. He would like to start this to honor the person who did the most for the club activities during the year. The person's name would be placed on a plaque. Please send recommendations to Al Penna by November 30th the award will be given to the person with the most votes at our Christmas party.

Ray Roske spoke about a Corvette drive by for Bob Garvey. Members are to meet at the Jefferson Thriftway and then drive to Bob's house.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:39 p.m. with a motion and a second.

Respectively submitted
Sherri Skinner