

President Pat Melius opened the meeting at 6:45.

There were no new members in attendance.

There were no guests in attendance.

Orti Garvey attended for the first time in several months. She asked for a few minutes to address the group and gave a heartfelt thank you to members of the club for the help and kind gestures that were offered during Bob's illness.

Missing name tags: Terry Thompson, Caroline Kidd and Orti Garvey all paid $1 for missing name tags.

John Gaylord received his name tag.

No one at the meeting reported purchasing a new car. Al Sather reported on behalf of Don Eckhart that he has acquired a blue and white Calloway Memorial Edition car.

John Wendel was not available to present the treasurer's report. He did submit a written copy of the report for members to review. The club has $807.13 on hand at this time.

It was also reported by Pat Melius that John Wendel will be arranging a tech time at his home when he returns from Europe.

Past events attended:

Terry Thompson reported on the Dust 'em Off Car Show. It was held on a beautiful sunny morning and was well attended with about 100 cars in attendance.

Al Sather reported that the Jefferson Flower Festival was very well attended with a reported 240 cars showing up.

Pat Melius reported on the Cascade High School Car Show. This show had around 90 cars. Al Sather won for best 50s with his 59 Vette and Terry Thompson won for best rat rod with his 51 pickup.

Terry Thompson reported on attending the Route 66 Fun Run in Arizona. He and Sue flew to Las Vegas and rented a 2017 Corvette to drive to the event.

Jeff Albright reported on the cars and coffee event in Salem that he and Pat Melius attended. It was sponsored by Capitol Chevrolet. Jeff reported 85 Corvettes in attendance. Oh, and one Ford.

In new business, Dave Kuntz presented a mocked up example of a proposed trophy to go to the outstanding member of the club each year. The sample was shared with members. Dave will work up a firm cost and the club can further consider this at a later meeting.

In old business Bob Garvey's brick at Bowling Green was discussed. Al Sather shared the proposed art work for the brick. There is dissatisfaction with the art work. He and Al Penna will work more on this.

Upcoming Events:

The Melius's will host the July club meeting at their home in Turner. It will be a pot luck with Pat and Faye providing burgers and dogs. A sign up sheet for side dishes was started.

May 17-Scio Lamb and Wool Festival Cruise In

May 17 & 18-Rhody Days Car Show in Florence

May 18-Clark Lumber Car Show and BBQ in Tigard

May 25-Veteran's Car Show in Portland

May 25-Silverton High School Car Show in Silverton

May 31 and June 1-Function 4 Junction in Junction City.

June 5-Endless Summer Cruise In in Gresham

June 7,8 & 9-46th Annual Vette A Bration in Yakima

June 15-Bridge City Cruise in Milwaukee

Cruise In Down by the River in Oregon City

All Comers Rendezvous Cruise In in Brooks

Roll the Dice Car Show at the casino in Grande Ronde

June 22-Corvettes at the Carousel in Salem

June 29-Sweet Home Sweet Rides in Sweet Home

July 4-4th of July Cruise In in Willamina

July 6-Wings and Wheels at the airport in Florence

July 13-North Salem JROTC Car Show in Salem

Crow Car Show in Crow

July 14-Springhill Car Show in Albany

More detailed information on these and other car shows can be found at the following websites:

Northwest Classic Auto Mall Cruise News

Oregon Events: Car Shows

Tech Time: Al Sather reported a 64 project Corvette for sale. It is a roadster with both tops. Asking price is $25k. Contact Al if interested.

50/50 drawing was won by Lou Gzell. The pot was $35.

In the attendance drawing Tina Mulkey's name was drawn. She was not in attendance so the amount will rise to $20 next month.

Meeting was adjourned about 7:45.