

A brief business meeting was held. Pat Melius called the meeting to order.

There were no guests or visitors.

No new cars.

Leon Walter was the only July birthday. It was pointed out that Gene Kidd's birthday in June was missed last month. Happy birthday to both.

The Treasurer's report from John Wendel was that it was the same as last month. No income, no outflow.

Past events:

Springhill Car Show-several members attended. They had 212 cars at the show. A beautiful setting on the golf course. Too few porta potties. Several food choices. The 50/50 drawing gave $637 to the winner. Al Pena won for best early modified truck with his 37 Ford and best modern muscle for his Viper.

Crow Car Show-a couple of members attended. They had about 200 cars at this show also. No members won awards for their cars, but Terry Thompson won the 50/50 and came away with $250.

The Sweet Home Car Show-attended by several members. Beaver State won for club participation, Al Sather won for best C-1 Corvette, Pat Melius won for best C-2 Corvette, Mary Hobson won for best C-4 Corvette, Ray Roske for best C-5 Corvette, Lee Cray won for best C-7 Corvette and Al Pena won for Pro Street with his truck.

Corvette's on the Grass at the Salem Carousel-several members attended. They had 160 Corvettes show up. We had no winners. Cascade Corvette Club won for club participation.
