The First Lady's Mystery Tour

Jim Garboden

Eugene members met and departed at 7 am, and joined the rest of the gang at "The Beanery" in Albany for breakfast and lots of coffee! Mary had assigned us "car numbers" which we found on our own personalized traffic cone in our designated parking spot. We were to travel and remain in this order for the rest of the day. After traveling every road east of the freeway, seeing the only herd of camels in Oregon, we made our first stop at Shreiner's Iris Garden for a potty stop, pastry & coffee. Then on to Newberg for lunch at Finnigan's. After lunch we drove to the top of Bald peak for a great view of the valleys on both sides, and down the west side for a stop at Montinore Winery for tasting & buying. Because of heavy traffic some of us had to be rather "aggressive" when we pulled out on the main road—good thing the OSP motor officer was busy writing a greeting for someone else. We made our final stop of the day at The Grand Lodge in Forest Grove where they had special parking set aside for us. After a couple of libations and dinner we were summoned to the "Magic Flute Room" by the First Lady, Mary, for the Pajama Party. What began as a contest for the silliest pajamas quickly became a contest between one man who threatened to "get naked" (who shall remain nameless, right Ron?) and the women who would pay him NOT to! Seems we disturbed the ghosts of John & Angeline who kept those of us in the west wing awake most of the night!
